for the culturally curious

Education

ART&Restaurants NEW YORK

Visit galleries, museums, private collectors' and private dealers' homes, artists' studios, and other related cultural institutions, all the while enjoying the various renowned cuisines of New York. This program gives unprecedented access to a truly immersive NY contemporary art and culinary scene.

ART&theCity NEW YORK

Live like a consummate New Yorker! This is an original New York style "rendezvous" specifically designed for women. From gallery hopping across Chelsea to scouting out next-generation fashion designers, rooftop skyline cocktail hour, and private cooking demonstrations; we organize fun, social, and educational outings.

ARTBIZWORKSHOP NEW YORK

An intense, research workshop for students interested in art related careers; ArtBiz Workshop offers a 21st century approach to education through experience-based learning taught by professionals in their field. Whether it's tapping into the world of advertising design, or seeing how an art gallery runs, or sharing tips on art market valuation, we offer a professional circle for career development.

ARTEDUWORKSHOP NEW YORK

An Interdisciplinary art education program designed for ages 4 to 16 providing children access to an art-filled world of adventure. ArtEdu Workshop is an interactive workshop facilitating field trips to the Met, MOMA, galleries, artists' studios and other related art organizations. Children will have the opportunity to engage in art making of their own or perhaps witness a piece of art in the making!

ARTINSIDERS NEW YORK

A must-do for clients who are interested in contemporary art and building an art collection. Designed specifically for art collectors and art professionals, this program offers visits to new and up-coming galleries, museums, collectors' and dealers' homes, and emerging artists' studios reinforced with customized lectures, helpful art collecting tips and important art market information.

ART&CULTURE KOREA

A personalized art and culture program providing an exclusive exploration of Seoul, Korea. Experience a first-hand "East-meets-West" encounter that combines the booming contemporary culture of Korea with its tradition rich heritage.
